We have audited the accompanying statement of financial position of Christian Education, Inc. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Corporation's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. The prior year summarized comparative information has been derived from the Corporation's June 30, 2009 financial statements and, in our report dated October 8, 2009, we expressed an unqualified opinion on those financial statements.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Christian Education, Inc. as of June 30, 2010, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Notes to Financial Statements

June 30, 2010 and 2009

(1) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies:

Organized in 1972, Christian Education, Inc. (the Corporation) operates Ezell-Harding Christian School located in Antioch, Tennessee. The School provides classes from early childhood through high school.

The financial statements of Christian Education, Inc. have been prepared on the accrual basis following Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification (FASB ASC) 958, formerly Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 117, Financial Statements of Not-for-Profit Organizations. The significant accounting policies followed are described below:

Financial Statement Presentation

The Corporation reports information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets: unrestricted, temporarily restricted and permanently restricted. Contributions, including unconditional promises to give, are recorded as made. Mere intentions to give are not considered unconditional promises to give. Contributions are recorded as unrestricted, temporarily restricted, or permanently restricted support depending on the existence and/or nature of any donor restrictions. Restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets upon satisfaction of the time or purpose restrictions.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Accounts Receivable

Tuition is financed to students by short-term unsecured accounts receivable. The Corporation periodically reviews all delinquent accounts and charges off accounts after collection efforts are exhausted.

The allowance for doubtful accounts represents an amount which, in management's judgment, will be adequate to absorb potential uncollectible accounts receivable. In determining the adequacy of the allowance, management considers general economic conditions, the customer's financial ability and the age of the receivable.

Investments

The Corporation has adopted FASB ASC 958, formerly SFAS No. 124, Accounting for Certain Investments Held by Not-for-Profit Organizations. Under ASC 958, investments in marketable securities with readily determinable fair values and all investments in debt securities are reported at their estimated fair values in the statement of financial position. Unrealized gains and losses are included in the change in net assets in the statement of activities. Ordinary investment income and realized and unrealized gains and losses are recorded in unrestricted net assets unless donor restrictions or legal compliance require their retention for a specific purpose. In this case, the ordinary investment income and realized and unrealized gains and losses are recorded in the temporarily restricted or permanently restricted classes of net assets. The estimated fair market values are determined based on the quoted market value of the securities.

(1) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies: (Continued)

Inventories

Inventories are recorded at the lower of cost or fair market value.

Property and Equipment

Plant assets consisting of land, buildings, improvements and equipment are stated in the accompanying statement of financial position at cost, or, if contributed, at fair market value at date of gift. Depreciation is calculated by the straight-line method. The estimated useful lives of plant assets are as follows:

Buildings and improvements	10-30 years
Equipment, furniture and library	3-7 years

Revenue

Tuition revenue is recognized as earned. Tuition is collected monthly in advance and is refundable based on weeks in attendance.

Comparative Data

The financial statements and notes include certain comparative information as of and for the year ended June 30, 2009. With respect to the statement of financial position and statement of activities, such prior year information is not presented by net asset class. Accordingly, such information should be read in conjunction with the Corporation's financial statements for the year ended June 30, 2009 from which the summarized information was derived.

Income Taxes

The Corporation has applied for and received notification that it qualifies as a tax exempt organization as described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC). Accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been made in the accompanying financial statements. The Corporation is not a private foundation as defined in Section 509(a) of the IRC.

Donated Services and Materials

Donated assets are reflected as contributions in the accompanying statements at their estimated fair market values at the date of donation.

Donated services are not reflected in the financial statements unless the services create or enhance a nonfinancial asset or require specialized skills that would otherwise need to be purchased if not donated. Nevertheless, a number of volunteers donate significant amounts of their time to the Corporation.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, all highly liquid investments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less are considered to be cash equivalents.

Advertising Costs

The Corporation expenses all advertising costs as they are incurred.

June 30, 2010 and 2009

Fair Values

The Corporation has an established process for determining fair values. Fair value is based upon quoted market prices, where available. If listed prices or quotes are not available, fair value is based upon internally developed models or processes that use primarily market-based or independently-sourced market data, including interest rate yield curves, option volatilities and third party information. Valuation adjustments may be made to ensure that assets and liabilities are recorded at fair value. Furthermore, while the Corporation believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies, or assumptions, to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different estimate of fair value at the reporting date. Generally accepted accounting principles have a three-level valuation hierarchy for fair value measurements. An asset or liability's categorization within the valuation hierarchy is based upon the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement.

The three levels are explained as follows:

- Level 1 – inputs to the valuation methodology are quoted prices (unadjusted) for identical assets or liabilities in active markets.
- Level 2 – inputs to the valuation methodology include quoted prices for similar assets and liabilities in active markets, and inputs that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly, for substantially the full term of the financial instrument.
- Level 3 – inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

At June 30, 2010 and 2009, the Corporation maintained cash in excess of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation limit of $250,000 amounting to $385,585 and $179,972, respectively.
