Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Program Service Accomplishments

Notes for Notes first fundraising performance, at SoHo Music Club on December 4th, 2007 with performances by Peter Noone, Jeff Bridges and the MusicBox Wrecking Crew, comprised of 6 participants from the program, led the organization into an exciting year in 2008. The organization continued operations at the 1235 MusicBox with new support from the community. The MusicBox received new participants as a result of the word spreading that stage opportunities came from working with MusicBox. In 2008 the studio averaged between 5-10 participants daily. The MusicBox was a drop-in after-school facility that had staff on hand ready to teach a variety of music classes in drums, keys, guitar, dj and digital recording. Since the musicBox was a drop in facility the participation numbers are an estimate based on hand written sign-up sheets.

Notes for Notes began development of a new MusicBox in February 2008 at the Boys & Girls Club of Santa Barbara, and opened the door to participants in December. The opening of the new studio brought about the close of the 1235 Center due to greater resources and attendance at the new MusicBox. The new MusicBox is nearly three times the size with more equipment. The larger facility allowed the organization to increase the population served by their services. In the MusicBox, youths can explore creating music in a variety of different programs. The Guitar, the Drums, the Turntables, the Keyboard and OutLoud (vocal instruction) programs teach students basic through intermediate skills & techniques while learning a song of their choice as the vehicle for instruction. Digital Beats & Recording classes instruct students how to use cutting-edge digital recording software and equipment to create original beats and record songs. The Score! program is a collaborative program that brings filmmakers and musicians together to learn about scoring and producing a films soundtrack. The above classes are offered on a regular weekly basis while programs like E-Label; which instructs students how to market, produce and distribute their music and Learn from a Legend; which coordinates workshops with accomplished musicians, are special occasion based. The ever-expanding Rock the World program seeks out and coordinates live performance opportunities for students wishing to perform. The organization always urges students to PLAY IT FORWARD by passing on what they have learned and collaborating with others on new projects.

The MusicBox is open to all ages 8-18 year olds. Notes for Notes aims to provide opportunities to any youth looking to explore music, however, the programs are aimed at helping underprivileged youth unable to access such resources. Overall in the Santa Barbara School District, the District reports that 31.5% of students come from socio-economically disadvantaged families - 44.5% at the elementary school level, and 24.3% at the high school level. The MusicBox has become a melting pot of genres from Rock, Hip-Hop and Chicano rap to Soul and Mo-town.
