Mesdames:

We have your letters of August 18, 1955 and October 4, 1955 in which you request a group ruling covering you and your affiliated chapters for Federal income and admissions tax purposes.

Our records show that in a ruling dated September 16, 1949, addressed to you under your former name, Sweet Adelines in America, Incorporated, you were held to be exempt from Federal income tax under the provisions of section 101(6) of the Code of 1939.

On the basis of the information heretofore presented, which resulted in our ruling of September 16, 1949, and on the information recently submitted, it is the opinion of this office that you and your affiliated chapters appearing on the list furnished with your letter of August 18, 1955, are entitled to exemption from Federal income tax under the provisions of section 501(c)(3) of the Code of 1954, as it is shown that you and such chapters are organized and operated exclusively for educational purposes.

Accordingly, it will not be necessary for you and your affiliated chapters referred to above to file income tax returns so long as there is no change in your organization, purposes, or method of operation, or that of such chapters. Any such changes should be reported immediately to the National Office of the Internal Revenue Service in Washington, D. C., in order that their effect upon your exempt status, or that of your chapters may be determined.

However, you and your chapters referred to above are required to file annually information returns on Form 990A with the District Directors of Internal Revenue for the respective districts in which located so long as the exemption remains in effect. This form may be obtained from the District Director and is required to be filed on or before the fifteenth day of the fifth month following the close of your respective annual accounting periods.

2 - Sweet Adelines, Inc.

Contributions made to you and to your chapters referred to above are deductible by the donors in computing their taxable income in the manner and to the extent provided by section 170 of the Code of 1954.

Bequests, legacies, devises or transfers, to or for your use or to or for the use of the chapters listed are deductible in computing the value of the taxable estate of a decedent for estate tax purposes in the manner and to the extent provided by sections 2055 and 2106 of the Code of 1954. Gifts of property to you and to such chapters are deductible in computing taxable gifts for gift tax purposes in the manner and to the extent provided in section 2522 of the Code of 1954.

No liability is incurred by you or the chapters referred to above for the taxes imposed under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (social security taxes) unless you or such chapters have filed waiver of exemption certificates in accordance with the applicable provisions of such Act. In the event you and your chapters desire social security coverage for your employees or have any questions relating to the filing of waiver of exemption certificates you should take the matter up with your respective District Directors of Internal Revenue.

Your attention is called to the provisions of section 501(c)(3) of the Code of 1954 under which your exemption and that of your affiliated chapters will be revoked if any substantial part of your activities, or those of such chapters consists of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation, or if you or your chapters participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements), any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

For the purpose of applying this ruling to any period with respect to which the Code of 1954 is not applicable, any reference herein to a provision of the 1954 Code shall be deemed a reference to the corresponding provision of the 1939 Code.

In regard to the admissions tax status of Sweet Adelines, Inc., and its affiliated chapters, you are advised that the organization and its chapters qualify for the exemption provided civic and community membership associations by section 4233(a)(3) of the Code. Under this provision of the law, the organization and its affiliated chapters are exempt from collection of tax on admissions to any concerts conducted by them. The organization and its chapters may establish their right to this exemption by filing Form 755, application for exemption, with the district director of internal revenue concerned in connection with any concerts which are conducted. Information indicating that the organization and its chapters have been held exempt under section 213(a)(3) and the date of this ruling should be submitted with the application.

You should furnish the National Office annually, on the calendar year basis, lists, in duplicate, showing only the names and addresses of any new chapters affiliated with you during the year, and the names and addresses of any chapters which for any reason have ceased to exist. These lists should be accompanied by a statement of one of your principal officers as to whether the information heretofore submitted by you, and on which this ruling is based, is applicable in all respects to the new chapters appearing on the lists. This information should be forwarded so as to reach the National Office not later than February 15 of the following year.

The District Directors of Internal Revenue, for the districts in which you and your chapters listed are located are being advised of this action.

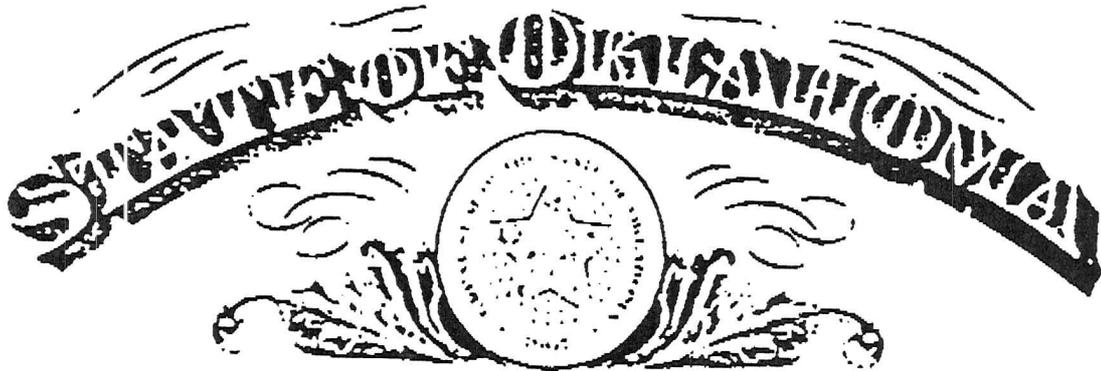

Very truly yours,

H. J. Swartz
