Ethics Advancement Program. The NASBA Center for the Public Trust (CPT) manages several areas of activities under the Ethics Advancement program. The main activity in this area during this fiscal year was production of the Ethics Matters newsletter. The newsletter included articles highlighting ethics and ethical behavior as well as the current activities of the CPT, business and accounting communities. The second area of activity is the Being A Difference Award. Each year the CPT honors the accomplishments of individuals and organizations that demonstrate exemplary practices of ethics in leadership and strong corporate citizenship. In this fiscal year there were four awards presented to outstanding leaders. In previous years the Being A Difference Award has been granted to Fortune 500 executives, Olympic athletes, a Big Four Audit firm, a public water utility and individuals quietly serving their community. CPT offers two online tools: a resource made available to CPA Society organizations with fresh content that can be used in continuing professional education courses in the area of ethical leadership, and a training program in ethical leadership for professionals.

Student Chapters Program. The CPT created Student Center for the Public Trust (StudentCPT) chapters to focus on educating and engaging future business leaders on ethics, accountability and integrity. StudentCPT chapters are student-run organizations, based on college campuses throughout the United States. Students have the opportunity to participate in a student leadership conference, ethics video competition, community service activities and Campus Being a Difference Awards. StudentCPT events also feature dynamic speakers and case studies to help students identify ethical issues and make the best decisions. Chapter events also provide opportunities to network with business leaders throughout NASBA, Boards of Accountancy and beyond. CPT expanded its impact on students with the online Ethical Leadership Certification program. This certification program uses interactive presentations, videos and thought provoking poll questions to analyze the causes, effects and solutions of real-world ethical dilemmas.

It also examines the current best practices of ethics and independence within the auditing profession. CPT in conjunction with Lipscomb University holds an annual conference to honor the best of the best leaders and companies in the Nashville area who create a culture of high integrity and social responsibility.
