Part II, Section C, Line 17

Facts And Circumstances Test Explanations

Facts And Circumstances Test

The following narrative demonstrates how NASBA Center for the Public Trust (CPT) meets the requirements of the "Facts and circumstances test" in IRS Regulation section 1.170A9(f)(3). CPT's governing body of thirteen directors has broad representation from the academic community, accounting profession, and persons with legal and ethical leadership expertise. This group meets four times each year to discuss the various mission-related programs, fundraising efforts, and the organization's direction and management. Ethics advancement programs recognize individuals and organizations that practice high standards of social responsibility and ethical leadership and provide continuing professional education content and training programs for the same. The Student Center for the Public Trust focuses on educating and engaging future business leaders on ethics, accountability and integrity through student membership groups at 40 colleges and universities. CPT provides an ethics leadership certification program for students. In addition, CPT sponsors lectures, conferences and forums dedicated to addressing the duty of professionals to serve the public good, along with a focus on the issues that arise in the practical ethics of public life. CPT maintains a continuous and bona fide program for solicitation of funds from the general public and business community. The organization maintains registration to solicit charitable contributions in all states requiring registration. CPT solicits donations through its website, quarterly newsletter, an annual gala fundraiser event, a golf event, and direct contact with potential donors during yearend and Sponsor a Leader campaigns. The calculation of CPT's public support for tax year 2017 is 32.88%. In recent previous years the percentage of public support has ranged from 26% to 38%. CPT receives contributions from individuals, corporations, foundations and a related organization. Contributions from individuals generally range from $10 to $15,000 and contributions from organizations range from $5,000 to $150,000. The ebb and flow of the percentage of public support is influenced by the awareness and fundraising efforts for general operational support and on occasion, specific corporate/organization sponsorships for program enhancements and special initiatives.
