Ethics Advancement Program. The NASBA Center for the Public Trust (CPT) manages three areas of activities under the Ethics Advancement program. The main activity in this area during this fiscal year was production of the Ethics Matters newsletter. The newsletter included articles highlighting ethics and ethical behavior as well as the current activities of the CPT, business and accounting communities. The Ethics Network was created to provide resources and opportunity to connect, promote and advance ethical behavior. The third area of activity is the Being A Difference Award. Each year the CPT honors the accomplishments of individuals and organizations that demonstrate exemplary practices of ethics in leadership and strong corporate citizenship. In this fiscal year there were four awards presented to outstanding leaders. In previous years the Being A Difference Award has been granted to Fortune 500 executives, Olympic athletes, a Big Four Audit firm, a public water utility and individuals quietly serving their community. The newest addition to the Ethics Advancement program is an online resource made available to CPA Society organizations with fresh content that can be used in continuing professional education courses in the area of ethical leadership.

Student Chapters Program. The CPT created Student Center for the Public Trust (StudentCPT) chapters to focus on educating and engaging future business leaders on ethics, accountability and integrity. StudentCPT events also feature dynamic speakers and case studies to help students identify ethical issues and make the best decisions. Chapter events also provide opportunities to network with business leaders throughout NASBA, Boards of Accountancy and beyond. CPT expanded its impact on students with the online Ethical Leadership Certification program. This certification program uses interactive presentations, videos and thought provoking poll questions to analyze the causes, effects and solutions of real-world ethical dilemmas.

Facts And Circumstances Test

Schedule A, Part II, Section C, 17a. 10%-facts-and-circumstances test-2014. The following narrative demonstrates how NASBA Center for the Public Trust (CPT) meets the requirements of the "Facts and circumstances test" in IRS Regulation section 1.170A9(f)(3). CPT's governing body of thirteen directors has broad representation from the academic community, accounting profession, and persons with legal and ethical leadership expertise. This group meets four times each year to discuss the various mission-related programs, fundraising efforts, and the organization's direction and management. Ethics advancement programs recognize individuals and organizations that practice high standards of social responsibility and ethical leadership and provide continuing professional education content for the same. The Student Center for the Public Trust focuses on educating and engaging future business leaders on ethics, accountability and integrity through student membership groups at colleges and universities. The CPT provides an ethics leadership certification program for students. In addition, the CPT sponsors lectures, conferences and forums dedicated to addressing the duty of professionals to serve the public good, along with a focus on the issues that arise in the practical ethics of public life. CPT maintains a continuous and bona fide program for solicitation of funds from the general public and business community. The organization maintains registration to solicit charitable contributions in all states requiring registration. CPT solicits donations through its website, quarterly newsletter, an annual fundraiser event in October, and direct contact during year-end and Sponsor a Leader campaigns. The calculation of CPT's public support for tax year 2014 is 29.3%. In recent years the percentage of public support ranged from 26% to 42%. CPT receives contributions from individuals, corporations, foundations and a related organization. Contributions from individuals generally range from $10 to $25,000 and contributions from organizations range from $5,000 to $150,000. The ebb and flow of the percentage of public support is influenced by the awareness and fundraising efforts for general operational support and on occasion, specific corporate/organization sponsorships for program enhancements and special initiatives.
