	Best Buddies International friendship programs match participants with and without intellectual disabilities in one-to-one friendship matches through four unique programs Middle Schools, High Schools, Colleges, and Citizens Since 1989, Best Buddies programs have positively impacted schools and communities around the world, with over 1,490 chartered programs in 43 countries. Best Buddies International 2009 Year in Review -College Chapters 267-High School Chapters 697-Middle School Chapters 142-Citizen Buddy Pairs 1,246-1,490 chapters worldwide (1,106 United States / 384 International)-3,397 Citizen participants in 17 countries. The friendship programs actively engage participants in community initiatives to promote awareness of Best Buddies and social inclusion for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities. Our programs impacted 400,000 people worldwide in 2009 and will continue to grow through the commitment of our volunteers each year. Within all of our friendship programs volunteers with disabilities have the opportunity to explore new social experiences and friendships by being part of Best Buddies. Each friendship match is paired for one year and upholds the commitment of meeting twice per month for social events, communicating weekly, and participating in group activities organized through their respective program. The Best Buddies Buddies International continues to expand opportunities for our volunteers with intellectual and developmental disabilities through the innovative Buddies United in Leadership Development (B U I L D ) program. The B U I L D program is a two-part training which focuses on training participants with disabilities as leaders and public speakers of the Best Buddies movement. The Buddy Ambassador track provides public speaking training to our participants with disabilities as leaders and promotes a greater understanding of ones commitment to the mission. The Buddy Ambassador track provides public speaking training for more than 300 people and continues to make strides wi

	Best Buddies Jobs continues the integration of people with intellectual and developmental disabilities into the community through supported employment. This program assists individuals to locate and maintain jobs of their own choosing by providing ongoing support and training. Our focus is on developing competitive, integrated jobs, which allow individuals to earn an income, pay taxes, and work in an environment alongside others in the community To date, Best Buddies Jobs has found employment for over 500 individuals in the Miami, Boston and Los Angeles area. We pride ourselves on developing jobs in professional environments. Our employers range from some of the top law firms and talent agencies to well-known retail businesses and luxury hotels Best Buddies has received a great deal of recognition for its Jobs Program. The President's Committee on the Employment of People with Disabilities has recognized Best Buddies Jobs as a national model of supported employment focusing on white collar and other non-traditional employment opportunities for people with cognitive disabilities. Westside Regional Center presented an Award of Excellence to Best Buddies Jobs California for providing "innovative employment opportunities for individuals with development disabilities." We owe our success to the wonderful employers and hard working consumers involved with our program. On behalf of all of our consumers and staff, Best Buddies Jobs would like to thank all of our incredible employers, who cared enough to give a person with a developmental disability a chance to excel as a productive member of society in a job that gives them satisfaction and a sense of purpose
