State Filing - Your action is necessary

If the organization is operating in multiple states it should consult the appropriate states to determine their specific filing requirements in which it does business. Doing business in a jurisdiction can include any of the following:

- Soliciting contributions or grants by mail or otherwise from individuals, businesses, or other charitable organizations;
- Conducting programs;
- Having employees within that jurisdiction;
- Maintaining a checking account; or
- Owning or renting property there.

Basic Record Keeping

The organization's records should be kept for as long as they may be needed for the administration of any provision of the Internal Revenue Code. Usually, records that support an item of income, deduction, or credit must be kept for a minimum of 3 years from the date the return is due or filed, whichever is later. Keep records that verify the organization's basis in property for as long as they are needed to figure the basis of the original or replacement property. Applicable law and an organization's policies can require that the organization retain records longer than 3 years.
