INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Board of Directors and Management
Tennessee Association of Craft Artists
d/b/a Tennessee Craft
Nashville, Tennessee

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Tennessee Association of Craft Artists (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statement of financial position as of June 30, 2023, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Tennessee Association of Craft Artists as of June 30, 2023, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Tennessee Association of Craft Artists and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Tennessee Association of Craft Artist's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements, including omissions, are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Tennessee Association of Craft Artist's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Tennessee Association of Craft Artist's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

Report on Supplementary Information

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole. The Schedule of Grant Activity is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
JUNE 30, 2023

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization and Purpose

Tennessee Craft was incorporated in 1972 as a Tennessee non-profit Association. Its primary purpose is to promote the crafts and craftspeople of Tennessee. The main programs used by Tennessee Craft to fulfill its purpose are spring and fall craft fairs which display the crafts of artisans.

Basis of Presentation

The financial statements of Tennessee Craft are presented on the accrual basis of accounting. Revenue is generally recognized when earned. Expenses are generally recognized when incurred.

Financial statement presentation follows the requirements of the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification Topic related to Presentation of Financial Statements of Not-for-Profit Associations. Under the FASB Accounting Standards Codification, Tennessee Craft is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets; unrestricted net assets, temporarily restricted net assets, and permanently restricted net assets.

Net assets without donor restrictions:

These are net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed stipulations. The Association had $354,805 of net assets without donor restrictions as of June 30, 2023.

Net assets with donor restrictions:

These are net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that may or will be met, either by actions of the Association and/or the passage of time. This classification also includes net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that may be maintained permanently by the Association. Generally, donors of these assets permit the Association to use all or part of the income earned for general or specific purposes. The Association had $10,602 of net assets with donor restrictions as of June 30, 2023.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, Tennessee Craft considers all highly liquid investments with a maturity of 90 days or less when purchased to be cash equivalents. As of June 30, 2023, the Association had no cash equivalents.

Revenue and Revenue Recognition

In accordance with the FASB Accounting Standards Codification, contributions received are recorded as unrestricted, temporarily restricted, or permanently restricted support, depending on the existence or nature of any donor restrictions.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (CONTINUED)
JUNE 30, 2023

The expiration of a donor-imposed restriction on a contribution is recognized in the period in which the restriction expires and at that time the related resources are reclassified to unrestricted net assets. A restriction expires when the stipulated time has elapsed, when the stipulated purpose for which the resource was restricted has been fulfilled, or both.

Tennessee Craft has several chapters which operate across the state, however these chapters are not recognized as separate legal entities and all financial transactions are completed as a single unit.

Grant income from governmental sources is recognized in accordance with the respective grant contract. Cash received in excess of grant expenditures to date is recorded as deferred revenue, and an account receivable is recorded when allowable expenditures exceed cash received. Revenue from craft fairs, including jury and booth fees, are recognized at the time of the event. Membership dues are recognized in the applicable membership year.

Advertising

Advertising costs are expensed when incurred.

Donated Services

Tennessee Craft receives volunteer services in its administrative and fund-raising efforts, particularly in the planning, promotion, and staging of its craft fairs. No amounts have been reflected in the financial statements as it was not practicable to determine the valuation of such services to Tennessee Craft, and Tennessee Craft exercises no significant control over the major elements of donated services.

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from estimates.

Functional Allocation of Expenses

3. FAIR VALUE OF INVESTMENTS (CONTINUED)

The Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification Topic related to Fair Value Measurements, establishes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. This hierarchy consists of three broad levels: Level 1 inputs consist of unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and have the highest priority, Level 2 inputs consist of observable inputs other than quoted prices for identical assets, and Level 3 inputs have the lowest priority. The Board uses the appropriate valuation techniques based on the available inputs to measure the fair value of its investments. Level 3 inputs were only used when Level 1 or Level 2 inputs were not available.

Level 2 Fair Value Measurements - The fair value of the investments are based on inputs other than quoted prices within Level 1 that are observable for the asset, either directly, or indirectly.

Level 3 Fair Value Measurements - The fair value of the investments are based on at least one significant unobservable input.
