You Are Not Required To File Form 940

We have received your Form 940, Federal Unemployment Tax, which you are not required to file. We have determined that you are an exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code; therefore, you are exempt from paying federal unemployment tax. Please destroy any Forms 940 you may have received. Do not make tax deposits for federal unemployment tax.

Even though you are not liable for the federal tax, you may be liable for state unemployment tax. Each state establishes and operates its own system. Therefore, you should contact your state to find out whether you are required to make contributions under the state unemployment compensation law.

If you need more information about unemployment tax, please see Publication 15, Circular E, Employer's Tax Guide. Circular E is available through the I.R.S. website (www.irs.gov) or by calling 1-800-829-3676.

If you have questions, please call us toll free at 1-877-829-5500.

Dear Applicant:

We are pleased to inform you that upon review of your application for tax exempt status we have determined that you are exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Contributions to you are deductible under section 170 of the Code. You are also qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, devises, transfers or gifts under section 2055, 2106 or 2522 of the Code. Because this letter could help resolve any questions regarding your exempt status, you should keep it in your permanent records.

Organizations exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Code are further classified as either public charities or private foundations. We determined that you are a public charity under the Code section(s) listed in the heading of this letter.

Please see enclosed Publication 4221-PC, Compliance Guide for 501(c)(3) Public Charities, for some helpful information about your responsibilities as an exempt organization.
