INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Board of Directors
Children's Advocacy Center for the 31st Judicial District, Inc.
McMinnville, Tennessee

We have audited the accompanying statements of financial position of the Children's Advocacy Center for the 31st Judicial District, Inc. (a nonprofit organization) as of June 30, 2009 and the related statements of activities and changes in net assets, functional expenses and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Organization's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

Except as disclosed in the following paragraph, we conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

This is the first year that the Organization has had an audit. As a result, the beginning balance sheet amounts for the current fiscal year have not been subjected to any audit procedures. Also, no accounting controls are exercised over certain contributions prior to the initial entry of such contributions in the accounting records. Accordingly it was not practicable for us to extend our audit of such receipts beyond the amounts recorded.

In our opinion, except for the effects of such adjustments, if any, as might have been determined to be necessary had the beginning balances and cash contributions referred to in the preceding paragraph been susceptible to satisfactory audit tests, the financial statements referred to in the first paragraph present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Children's Advocacy Center for the 31st Judicial District, Inc. as of June 30, 2009, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

CHILDREN'S ADVOCACY CENTER FOR THE 31ST JUDICIAL DISTRICT, INC.

June 30, 2009

Note A – The Children's Advocacy Center for the 31st Judicial District, Inc. serves to provide a comprehensive and humane response for children and families victimized by child sexual and physical abuse in its various forms in McMinnville, TN and the surrounding area. The Organization is funded primarily through federal and state government grants.

Note B – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

- (1) The financial statements of Children's Advocacy Center for the 31st Judicial District, Inc. are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting.
- (2) The Organization is a not-for-profit organization that is exempt from income taxes under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and classified by the Internal Revenue Service as other than a private foundation.
- (3) Property and equipment are depreciated using the straight-line method.
- (4) The costs of providing the various programs and other activities are shown on the statement of functional expenses. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the programs and supporting services benefited.
- (5) Advertising costs are charged to expense as incurred.
- (6) As required by the Not-For-Profit Subtopic of the FASB ASC, the Organization is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to the three classes of net assets: unrestricted, temporarily restricted, and permanently restricted. At June 30, 2009, all net assets were unrestricted.
- (7) For purposes of the statements of cash flows, the Organization considers all highly liquid investments available for current use with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.
- (8) The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.
- (9) Contributions received are recorded as unrestricted, temporarily restricted, or permanently restricted net assets depending on the existence or nature of any donor restrictions.
