Reasonable Cause Explanations

Explanation

The Columbia State Foundation changed donor software during the year and also used computer software to prepare the 990 for the first time to help assure accuracy and allow for electronic filing. Electronic filing for the 990 was not available during February and March due to IRS issues. We originally thought we would complete the return by the end of March, and as a result did not file for an extension at the end of February. When it became clear that we would not be able to complete the return by the end of March, we filed an extension request.
